JUMPING OUT OF THE FRYING PAN
INTO THE FIRE.—The troubles of Rudolph Schaffer, who keeps a beer saloon on Market street; are many and serious. A short time since a young gentleman demolished a portion of his stock in trade; on Saturday he met with another serious loss; and on yesterday morning still a greater one.

The facts are these? On Saturday,
Prancis Yost and George Connelly, being dry, entered Mr. S's saloon, and Mr. C. called for beer. They were promptly supplied, and as promptly emptied their respective glasses. This being done, Mr. C. walked off. Mr. G.
was about to follow suit, when Mr. S., becoming thoroughly alive to the situation, haited him, and demanded payment for the two glasses of beer. This was refused, but one glass, that of G., was finally paid for.

About this time Mr. C. returned, and was requested by Mr. S. to fork over a five cent pless. He was astonished.
He saked Mr. S. what kind of a Dutchman he was, using other "insulting language," which Mr. S., ouldn't make plain in English.

If was proper that Mr. G. and Mr. G. should be arrested. They were arrested at the instance of Mr. S., and Sthe facts being substantially as we have stated them, the case was dismissed at the cost of the prosecutor.

The "Tight Rope Ascension."—A dense crowd was assembled last evening to witness the celebrated gymnast. M. Denier, give his first "ascension." on a rope stretched across Main street, from the roof of the Grant House to the roof of the tall building opposite.

The performance was all that could be desired in the way of tight rope exhibiting, and showed in a thrilling manner what can be done by nerve and skill. M. Denier has been a gymnast from his youth, and is so thoroughly familiar with his present business that he is apparently as much at home on a tight rope as an ordinary mortal is in a feather bed. He has such complete confidence in himself that the spectator, no matter how timid, soon watches his daring feats with eager delight.

The principal feats of M. Denier were the walking forward and backward with eyes blindfolded—with feet encircled with a hoop—and a series of startling revelations on the trapeze.

This evening at 6 o'clock, he will trundle a wheel-barrow across the rope, walk across in a sack, and performs other feats which our citizens should one and all go to see. THE "TIGHT ROPE ASCENSION."-A THEATRE.—Mr. Raymond's Dramatic Giff Enterprise, last evening, was a genuine success. The gifts were all distributed as per announcement, giving entire satisfaction. This evening there will be ten more distributed, among them a set of Cottage Furniture valued at $75, a silver watch, &c., &c., which can be seen at C. P. Brown & Co.'s and, at the Hall, where tickets can be procured from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m.

The plays for this evening are Tom Taylor's famous drama, "Stiff! Waters Run Desp," and "Paddy Miles," Miss M. E. Gordon appearing in the former, and the favorite Mr. Raymond in both pieces.

We understand that a move is on foo we understand that a move; so note to give Miss M. E. Gordon a complimentary benefit before the close of Mr. R.'s season. This is as, it should be, Let our gallant young men show their appreciation of true worth and genius.

From the Richmond Dispatch.

An Incident—A Fact.—"Humbug," said a geatleman to a friend, when he picked up one of Dr. Hughes's circulars setting forth the virtues of his celebrated homeopathic remedies.

"How do you know?" quietly remarked his friend.

"Because it is," answered the other.

"But how do you know it is **

"Because they say it is."

"But don't you know that is no reason at all? What 'they say' is not always reliable. Homeopathy has become a fixed fact, 'It numbers among its practitioners the first medical minds of the world. It has proven liself successful in all the most virulent diseases and frightful epidemics that scourge the world. And I see from the papers that the Common Council of New York eity has resolved to put half of the hospitals into the hands of the homeopathic pbysicians in the event of cholery yields that the company that the type of the homeopathic pbysicians in the event of cholery yields a fact of the homeopathic pbysicians in the event of cholery yields a fact of the homeopathic physicians in the event of cholery yields a fact of the homeopathic physicians in the event of cholery yields a fact of the homeopathic physicians in the event of cholery yields a fact of the homeopathic physicians in the event of cholery yields a fact of the homeopathic physicians in the event of cholery yields. Now, my dear friend, go and try Doctor Hughes's remedies, and you will find they will do all he claims for them."

His friend replied he certainly would do so, and would take back all he said, and went straightway and procured the remedies, and that very night one of his children had the croup, and he timmediately used the medicine as directed, and it setted like a charm.

ANOTHER TROUBENT—The other day,

CITY COUNCIL.—An adjourned meeting of the 2nd Branch of the City Council was held last svening, at which was considered the ordinance entitled "An ordinance granting the exclusive right to contrast a Street Relivay in the streets of the city."

After much discussion pro and con the ordinance, in an amended form, was passed by a two-inrick vote.

Mother minor business was then transacted, when the meeting adjourned.
